2. And in that park there stands a hall:
Which is covered all over with purple and pale;
3. And in that hall there stands a bed:
Which is hung all round with silk curtains so red:
4. And in that bed there lies a knight:
Whose wounds do bleed by day and night:
5. At that bedside there lies a stone:
Which our blest Virgin Mary knelt upon:
6. At that bed's foot there lies a hound
Which is licking the blood as it daily runs down
7. At that bed's head there grows a thorn:
Which was never so blossomed since
Christ was born
